2010 Year End Reports

It is once again the time of the year that I am working on the parochial report. Of all the information that I have to report, I thought it best to report some of that also to you. Below are the attendance/membership/financial year end values. A + next to the number means it is an increase over last year. I hope that you all can see that the work you have done in the past year has paid off significantly, and that the excitement and energy that we have continues through this year as well.

New Members received: 18 (most we have had in a year)

Funerals: 2

Total Members: 82 (+)

Average Attendance: 47/Sunday (+2 from 2009)

January Council Meetings Notes

- Officers for 2011 have been elected (see top left of this page)
- A called congregational meeting on January 2nd approved the purchase by the state of approximately .96 acres of our property. A motion to tithe 10% of the final sale price under the direction of the council to charitable organizations also passed.
- Council will have a retreat on February 5 to plan for the coming year, led by the Rev. Scott Anderson.
- A new contract for Melanie has been approved for 2011.
